Cozy up in Winter

A stillness descends on the region as the landscape rests, though doesn't idle. It may be a little crisp outside during the Winter months, but that only adds to the nostalgic appeal when you imagine yourself cosying up by restaurant fire places, being romanced by the brilliant red sunsets and warming up with a delicate shiraz in hand at one of the many cellar doors. The clear night skies by bonfire provide a starry night spectacle that can only be seen in the country which is celebrated during the annual Winter Fire Festival, and the foggy frost-filled mornings will awaken the soul. Orange is such a rare and wonderful place and Winter is the perfect time to nestle in and embrace what makes Winter so special.
